CHARLIE BILL.

HEAD COACH

Welcome back to Stadium MK! It has felt like an incredibly long time ago we played our last home game, scoring that last minute winner to secure a 2-1 win over Cheltenham. What an occasion that was & we hope the game tonight lives up to the occasion once again.

Our league campaign has been disrupted by cup fixtures & games being moved out, which was out of our control, this has led to us playing only 6 league games in the first 13 weeks of the season. We have three big league games before Christmas where we face Oxford United, London Bees & Gillingham. We hope to use the momentum from our progression through to the next round of the Women's FA Cup with a convincing 8-1 win against Mulbarton on Sunday.

This evening we host Liam Gilbert's Oxford side, who I believe have been in the top two best teams each year for the past 3 or 4 seasons. We know they are going to pose a real threat to us tonight. It is no surprise to see Oxford United top of the league with some excellent recruitment over the summer.

We hope to use motivation from our 1-0 victory against Oxford United at the back end of last season, with them still being in the title race & at the time us facing relegation it was a performance that showed our supporters & each other that we were ready for the fight. I always think back to this game as the turning point in the season where we shifted the momentum, leading to us winning 3 of our final 4 games to stay in the division.

We look to replicate that type of performance tonight, we will need all your support along the way & hope you are all as excited as us to be back at Stadium MK.

COYD

Best wishes,

Charlie

OXFORD UNITED.

This evening we welcome league leaders, Oxford United Women FC. The U's have started the 2022/23 season unbeaten in 12 games, following on from their strong 2021/22 campaign, finishing second in the FAWNL Southern Premier Division. Liam Gilbert's side have most notably beaten Portsmouth (2-0), Bridgwater United (2-0), and Chesham United (6-1) in the Women's Vitality FA Cup.

MK DONS WOMEN U23S

Last weekend, the Under-23's had the weekend off. Their next home game is Sunday 27th November 2022, away to Stevenage FC Development.

MK DONS WOMEN U19S

The MK College Under-19 Football & Education programme, which works in partnership with the MK Dons FC Women enjoyed an unbeaten run in the Regional AOC 7 a'side Tournament. This has seen them progress through to the National Finals which are held in Nottingham, between 14-16th April.

UP NEXT

Up next, we return to Weston Park (Wootton Blue Cross FC) to host London Bees, on Sunday 20th November. The Bees' have seen an inconsistent start to the season, sitting in 8th place.

LAST TIME OUT

Last time out we saw progression through The Vitality FA Cup by beating Norfolk side, Mulbarton Wanderers 8-1. The Dons' showed their dominance across the 90' minutes, upping our tally to 50 goals scored already this season! A long-range effort, scored by Pepper (5'). Followed by a first-half Mollie Coupar hat-trick (10', 11', 28'), and goals by Wood (35', 55'), Mitchell (65') and Mclean (75').
