CHARLIE BILL.

HEAD COACH

Whilst reflecting back on our start to the season, we have enjoyed a very positive start in the league, securing 7 points from the first 6 games.

In addition, we have also enjoyed progression through both the FAWNLCup, and Berks and Bucks Women's Senior County Cup looking to further progress through the FA Women's National League Cup this weekend, against Gillingham W.F.C.

Scoring 41 goals so far this season, is a clear indicator of the progression we have made since last season, where we only totalled 43 goals across the season, in all competitions. The new signings have already shown significant impact in the first 9 games of the season, with Therese Addison still to add, who unfortunately picked up an injury during pre-season. Similar to previous seasons, we have seen the debuts of RTC graduates, Leoni Miceli and Darcy Guy.

COYD

Best wishes,

Charlie

GILLINGHAM W.F.C.

On Sunday, we face a very difficult outfit, Gillingham W.F.C. in the first round of the FAWNL Cup. The Gills' have started the season in very similar fashion to the Dons' with mixed results, most notably beating Ipswich Town Women FC, 2-1 and more recently beating both London Bees (2-1) and Bridgwater (1-0) away from home.

MK DONS WOMEN U23S

Xanthos's side have continued their electric start of the season, beating Stevenage FC Development, 8-1. Alike the first-team, the Under 23's have started the season in great goal-scoring form, totalling 38 goals across all competitions. The goals were shared between Maia (4), Stichbury (2), Jacovides (1) and Bennett (1), with Maia sitting as the leagues top scorer with a tally of (9), (11 in all comps.). The Under 23's are looking to follow up from their good start to the season travelling away to Watford Women Development on Sunday, 6th of November.

UP NEXT

Up next, we host Norfolk side, Mulbarton Wanderers who currently play in the Thurlow Nunn League on Sunday 13th of November, at Weston Park, Wootton Blue Cross.

LAST TIME OUT

Last time out, we travelled away to the AGL Arena, Felixstowe to face 4th placed Ipswich Town FC Women. Following a very exciting 35' minutes, the Dons' were on the receiving end of a quick 3-goal burst, which left us trailing at half-time.

After the break, the Dons' struggled to dominate the possession, unlike recent performances, which led to the home side growing in confidence, scoring a further two goals. Late in the second half, there were five substitutions made, with instant impact leading to a consolation goal
